RANDOLPH
HIGH SCHOOL

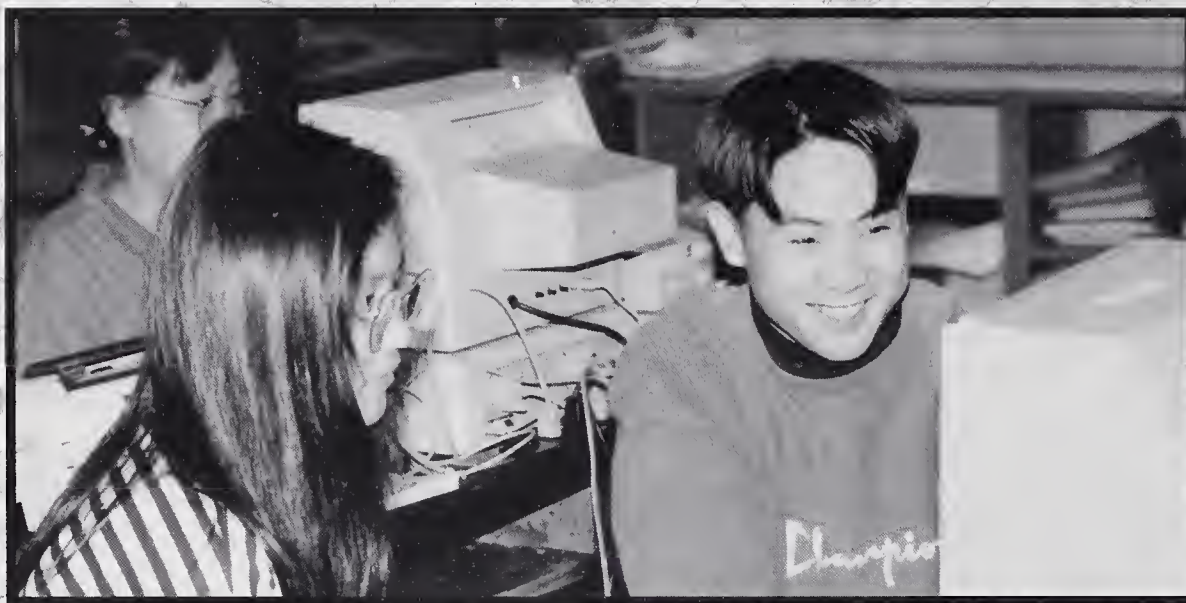

Arriving at the school by bus in the early morning hours, greeting friends during the between class rush, enjoying comfort and leisure at lunch time, departing for home at the sound of the 2:07 bell . . . these are all significant components of campus life at RHS. The world of Randolph High School is modeled around this way of life, contoured to fit the action of today and prepared to change for the world tomorrow.

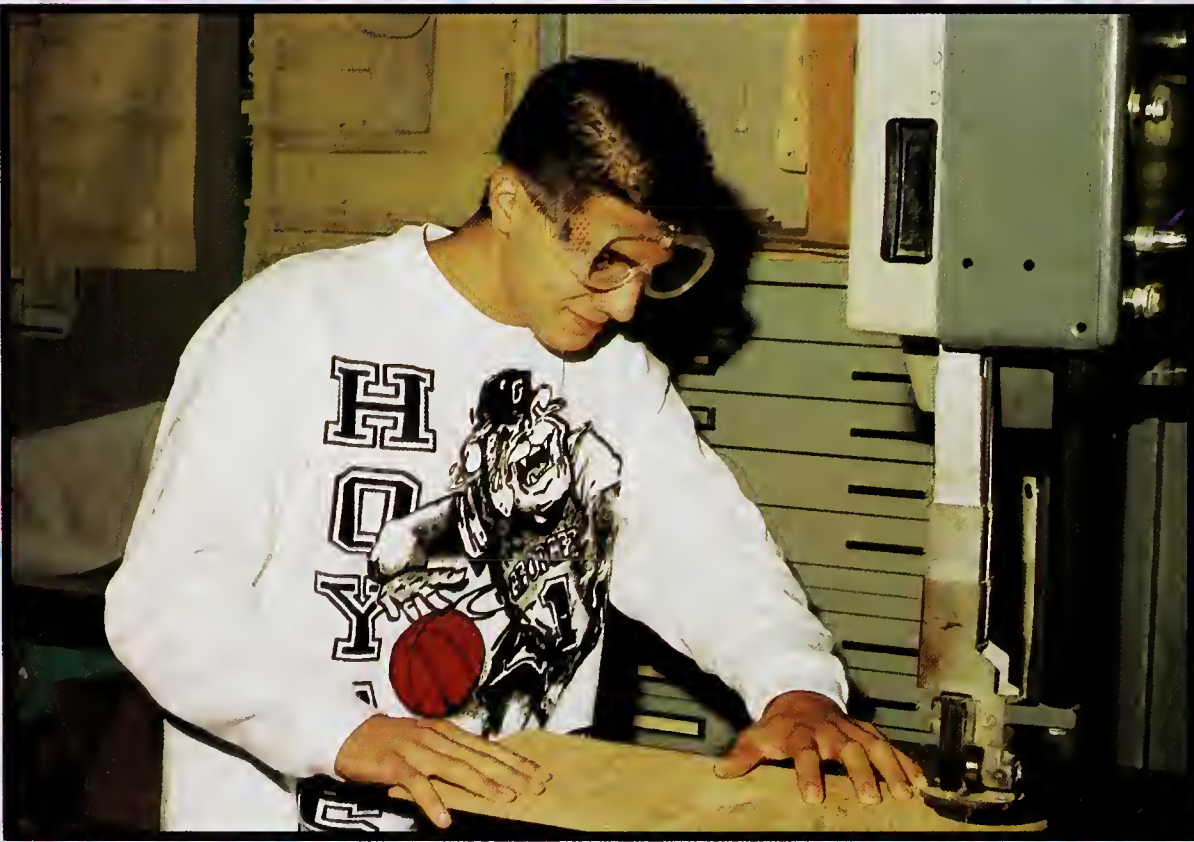

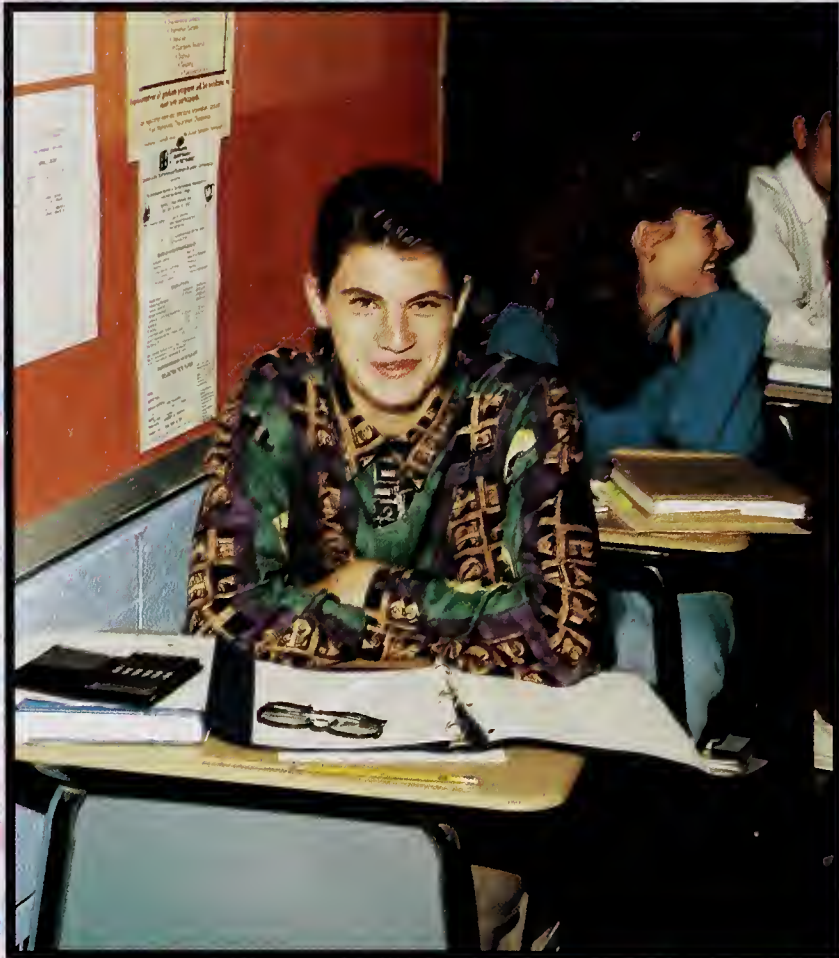

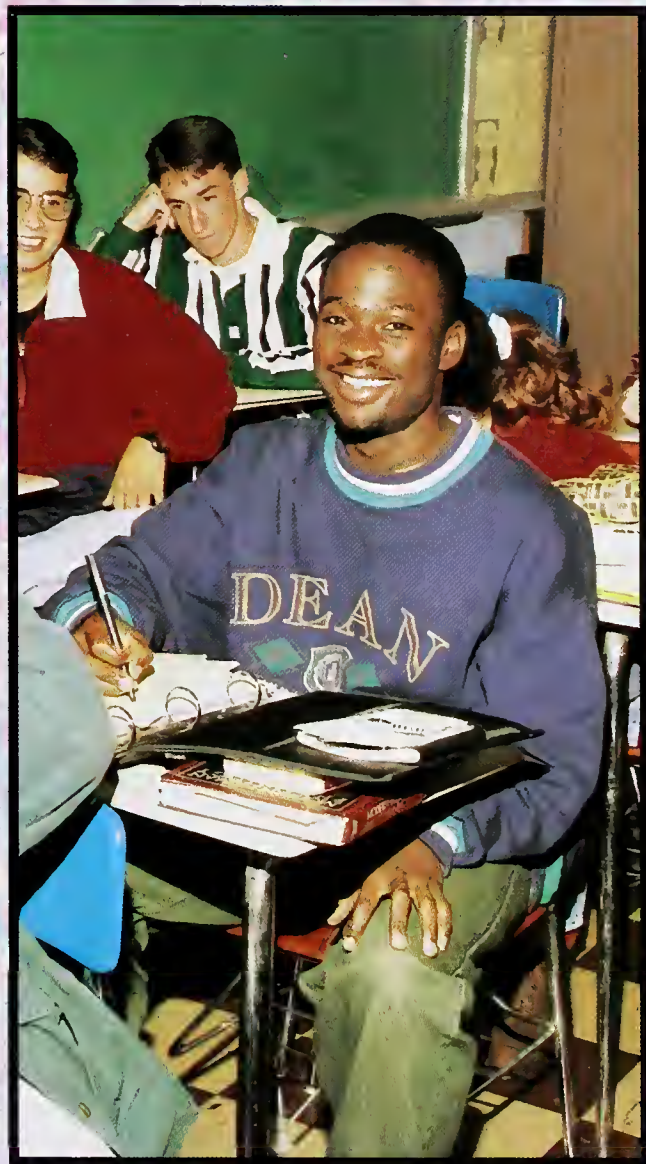

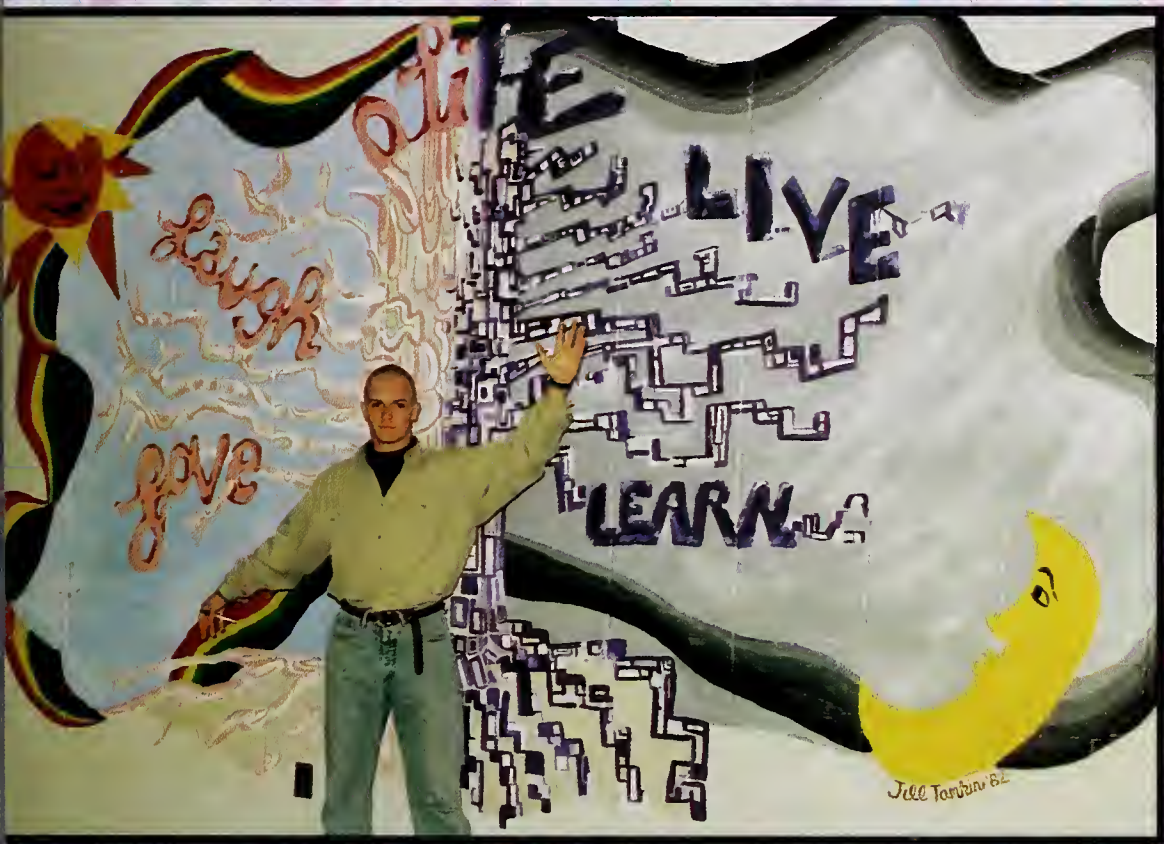

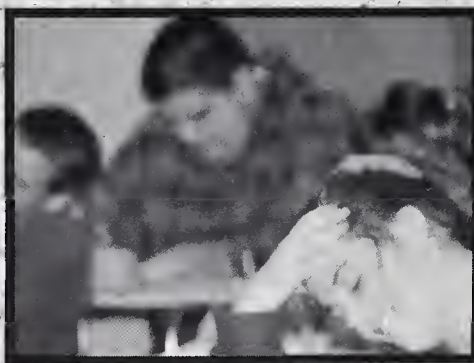

The shape of today's experiences determines the content of tomorrow's minds. In any organization, whether it be a school, business, or religious group, there are two basic identifying aspects the contours and content. At Randolph High School, where the future citizens of the country are shaped, it is especially necessary that the combining of content and contour be complete and inseparable. Together contours and contents fulfill the purpose of education at RHS, learning. Not only do students learn basic and specialized skills, but in doing so they acquire an understanding and appreciation of what they learn. Intellectual development which comes with the accumulation of knowledge is necessary and beneficial goal in the shaping of constructive citizens.

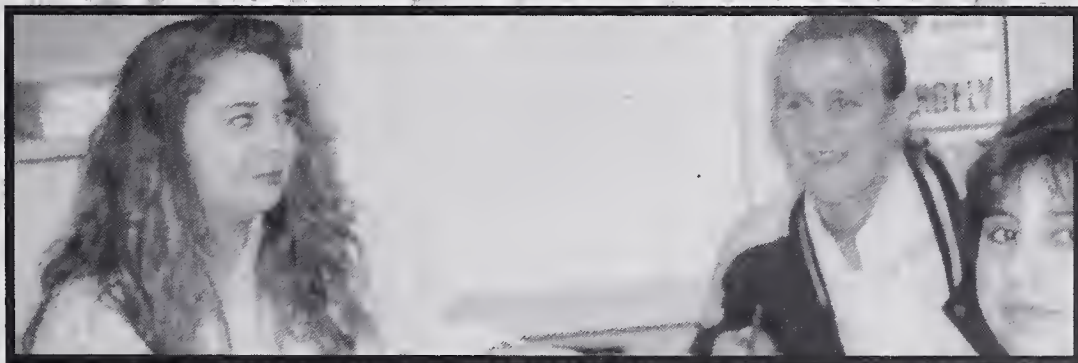

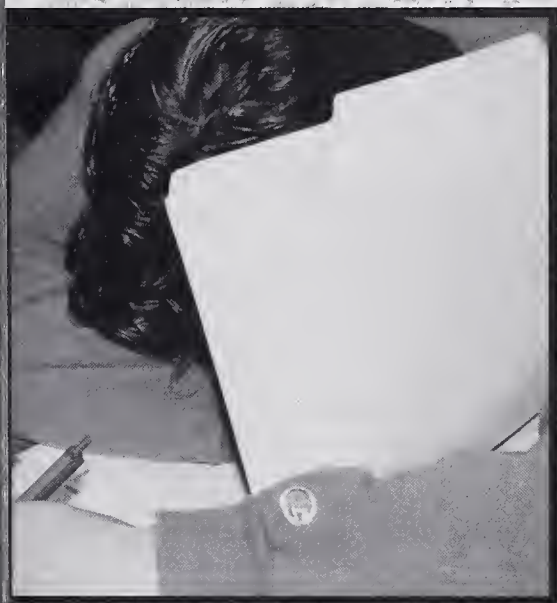

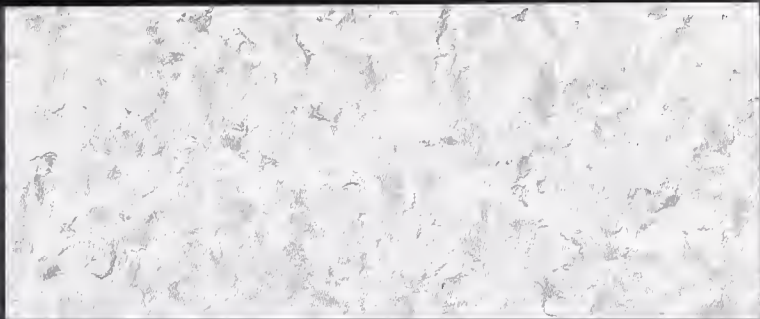

The content of Randolph High School — peopled by the diversified young, guided by the policies of a conscientious school board, supervised by an experienced educator, Mr. James E. Watson, and implemented by a staff of excellent administrators and teachers — is the reflection of a community's hopes and aspirations. For only a few organizations can claim the unique combination of a large multigraded facility and intelligent, diversified, energetic people which is expressed at Randolph High School by its . . . Contours and Contents.

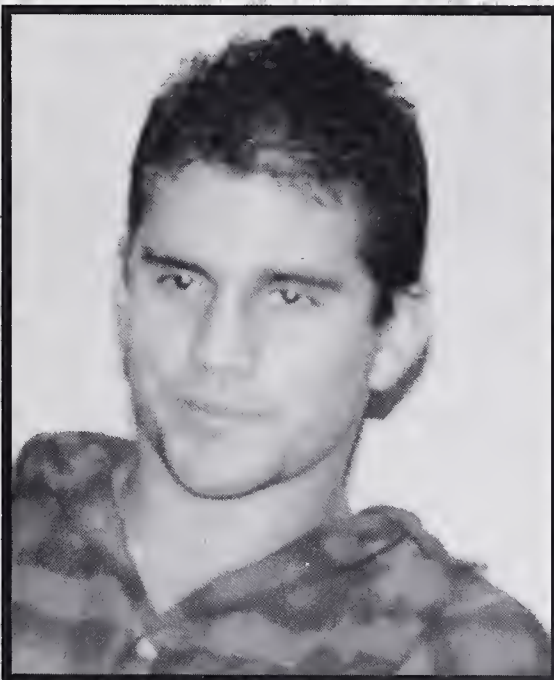

Now we are leaving this school to follow our own, individual paths into the world, to take our place as conscientious members of society. We, each bringing with us the things that we learned at RHS, hope to make a brighter and happier future for generations to come. I wish all of you, the graduating class of 1994, the best of luck in the years to come, and hope that you will all lead successful, enjoyable and most beneficial lives.

Matthew H. Cole

DEDICATION

In recognition of thirty three years of devoted service to the young people of Randolph, the class of 1994 is very proud to dedicate this Oracle to Mr. John Papa. Mr. Papa is a teacher who cares deeply for his students and is remembered fondly by all those who have had the pleasure of being in his class or working on the yearbook staff. Under his guidance, the Oracle has become a publication of excellence. As he turns to new endeavors, we in Randolph Jr./Sr. High School join in thanking him for his wisdom, understanding, and grace, and we wish him good health and success as he leaves Randolph. We shall miss you.

Mr. John Papa, we thank you!

This has definitely been the most productive soccer season we have experienced in our four years here at the Randolph Jr/Sr High School, and we would like to congratulate the team for a season well played and to wish them the best for another productive season next year. We would like to thank the entire Varsity team for their support in helping us to get All-Star recognition. We would also like to offer our congratulations to the girl's soccer team which ended their win-less streak by defeating Holbrook by the score of 3-2.

"If you persuade yourself that you can do a certain thing, provided this thing be possible, you will do it, however difficult it may be. If, on the contrary, you imagine that you cannot do the simplest thing in the world, it is impossible for you to do it, and molehills become for you unscalable mountains."

Emile Coule

"SERVING ALL FAITHS FOR FIVE GENERATIONS"

I Believe In Tomorrow

I believe in it because it has not yet come. And I am young, and youth always believes that tomorrow will be better than today. I believe that I will do tomorrow what I failed to do today, and be what I have not yet been.

I trust the future, Youth is always glorious because it trusts the future. Youth will attempt the impossible, scale the mountain that is supposed to be inaccessible, and dare the thing that age will fear. "We specialize in the wholly impossible, doing the thing that no one else could do."

I believe in tomorrow because it is unspoiled. I have not, nor has anyone, yet written on it with the grimy finger of folly or selfishness or sin. No wars have been fought in Tomorrow, No lie has been told, or dishonest deed done, in Tomorrow. No man has treacherously failed a friend in Tomorrow.

Tomorrow is one clean, beautiful day, the day on which dreams come true, on which the impossible things will yet be done, on which I shall have the nerve and the will to be and to do that which was too much for me in the grim battle of Today.
